GOVERNOR

STATE CAPITOL
HELENA, MONTANA 59620-0801

Greetings:

I am pleased to announce the publication of the 1995-1996 Montana Consumer Products Directory. The listings provide a sampler of the wide range of products being produced in Montana--from firms employing several persons to home-based cottage industries. These companies are the backbone of Montana's business community.

During the last several years, Montana has chosen to play a strong role in the international arena. Through a trade office located in Kumamoto, Japan, and a products showroom in Taipei, Taiwan, Department of Commerce staff have helped many of the state's small businesses expand into Pacific Rim and European markets. The "Made in Montana" label and Montana products have become well known worldwide.

If you would like more information about the "Made in Montana" program or overseas product promotion, please contact the Montana Department of Commerce's Economic Development Division.

Sincerely,

A Message From The Director:

The 1995-1996 edition of the Montana Consumer Products Directory will serve as a useful tool for retailers and consumers alike in learning about the diverse products being produced in our state. The companies listed in the directory are a reflection of the determination of Montana entrepreneurs wanting to make a positive impact upon Montana's economy, and to better their own lives and those of their families.

Montana products are known both nationally and internationally. They have become a respected part of the world marketplace. The Department of Commerce is committed to ensuring that Montana-made products maintain their high profile.

This edition features a special section covering advertising agencies. I hope you will find the new listings valuable. Support from Montanans is an integral part of why the "Made in Montana" program has been such a success and we hope to see it flourish even more in years to come.

Sincerely,

A dollar a pound is donated back for special environmental projects in Monteverde. In 1992 we went to Moscow with a small roaster and operate the only coffee roaster in all of Russia. We are now operating a small roaster in the Texas hill country where we can swim in the lakes all year round.

NATURE'S BOX by Earth Furn.

Earth Furn. combines the creative imagination of man with the beauty of nature to present to you "Nature's Box."

These unusual and naturally shaped forms, of which there are no two alike, originate from the root or burl of the manzanita tree. Manzanita, which means little apple in Spanish, is an exotic wood imported from Mexico. The manzanita berries were first used by Indians as a food source.

Each burl is individually selected and handcrafted into a useful creation, enhancing the beauty and character of your home.

Sounds of the American West

WALLY McRAE LIVE (MORE OR LESS)

Mix equal portions of Montana lowbrow and modern poetry, add a dash of humor, and the result is the internationally renowned cowboy and poet Wally McRae. In this video, Wally presents a collection of his favorite poems from the land that inspires much of his work: the beautiful Rocky Mountain ranch in the backcountry of Montana. You'll enjoy Wally's ballad poem "Rencounter" which has entered the oral tradition of cowboy poetry as a classic recitation. "Wally McRae Live" will warm your heart and light your fires as you enjoy the poetry again and again. $4.95 video.

CHARLIE RUSSELL'S OLD MONTANA YARNS (Volume I)

by Raphael Crsty
Now hear old time stories from the American West as only Charlie Russell would tell them. You can enjoy these yarns of America's greatest western painter as related by noted Russell historian Raphael Crsty. Scenes of encounter with buffalo, wolves and horses alternate with sword and music played in the musical saw and guitar. $12.95 cassette.

New! CHARLIE RUSSELL'S OLD MONTANA YARNS (Volume II)

by Raphael Crsty
Mix of Charlie's favorite tales of trappers, Indians, & cowboys. Some of the best parts of the Old West are still here for you to enjoy. A wonderful recording. $9.95 cassette.

WHERE THE RED-WINGED BLACKBIRDS SING

by JIM SCHULZ
Let the plaintive sound of a steam whistle train whistle, the roar of the lonesome prairie wind, a red-winged blackbird, a coyote, and the howling of a lone cowboy singing tell you, in a music journey across the northern plains. This all-american recording by singer/songwriter Jim Schulz encompasses the sights and sounds, folklore and spirit of a land where prairie, mountains, and the mountains meet. (by middle guitar, mouth harmonica, fiddle, musical saw and Native American drumming). In an all feature, this collaborative of new western folk music. $12.95 cassette.
